Trip to Cowpens Battlefield

Rev. Forrest Chilton pays tribute to those Patriots who fought at the Battle of Cowpens.

Waitress poses with the big tippers from Kentucky.

John Clay Barnett stands by the Cowpens monument.

Bulter County Bicentennial

GIS Color Guard ready to present Colors and Standards

GIS members pose with Congressman Ed Whitfield, Medal of Honor recipient Don Jenkins and County Executive David Fields.

Right: Mrs. Christine Coleman, Regent of the Green River DAR and Chairperson of the Bicentennial celebration flashes a big smile.

Congressional Medal of Honor recipient Don Jenkins and John Clay Barnett.

After firing a gun salute, new member Vic Bitter stands guard as Scott Giltner plays taps.

Grayson County Bicentennial

Rifleman Dennis Scott, Noble Roberts and Ed Myles at the Bicentennial.

Color Guard at the Grayson County Bicentennial. (L-R) Joe Parish, Rev. Forrest Chilton, Abe Lincoln look-a-like, John Test, Dennis Scott, Junior Murdock and Noble Roberts.

Noble Roberts and Tom Higgins fold a flag as Rev. Forrest Chilton describes each fold. John Test (on left) watches the ceremony.

This is what I call old-time country cooking. The food was served on the Courthouse square.
