GIS members who attended the service at Arkansas Post were: Forrest Chilton, Reggie Roberson, Ed Myles and Joe Parrish.

Students visit the Center for Advancing America's Heritage

Philip Yenowine, has the attention of the students as he explains a cartridge box. Rae Ann Sauer, who took part in the lecture, listens to Philip and now knows how to load and shoot a Brown Bess!

Director Colleen Wilson, standing by the Liberty Bell, talks with students from Audubon Elementary School. Charlie Scott, Philip Yenowine and several DAR members assisted with this function.

Grave Marking—Patriot Captain Abraham Linkhorn Paternal Grandfather of President Abraham Lincoln

Alex Probus , a descendant of the Patriot by monument.

Charlie Scott and Philip Yenowine prepares the hole for the SAR marker while the Rev. Forrest Chilton puts the finishing touches on the marker.

National officers Lindsey Brock, Historian General and Clark Wisner, Chaplain General march with Past KYSSAR President Tom Higgins.

New member, Lloyd Fowler attends his first Patriot Grave Marking and receives his SAR rosette.

Riflemen Vic Bitter, GASSAR President Michael Tomme and Louisville Thruston member, Terry Brown provides a gun salute.

Young C.A.R. member caught covering his ears. The editor does not know if this was during the gun salute or during the fife playing!

Rick Smurdon, INSSAR and Sons

Bugler Scott Giltner plays taps at close of the service honoring Patriot Captain Abraham Linkhorn (Lincoln)

Local DAR Members honored with SAR/DAR Appreciation Medal

Several DAR members were at the Patriot Grave Marking Service where the Grandfather of President Abraham Lincoln was honored. This gave our chapter the opportunity to thank some of these ladies by presenting them with the SAR/DAR Medal of Appreciation.

- (1) Past John Marshall Chapter Regent: Ann Franklin
- (2) Past John Marshall Chapter Regent: Shirley Whittaker-Burba
- (3) John Marshall Chapter member: Glenna Whittaker
- (4) Peter Foree Chapter Regent: Julie Hardaway
- (5) John Marshall Chapter Regent: Laura Jones

Susan Lewis, Cox's Station member, also received a SAR/DAR Medal of Appreciation for her efforts in organizing the Patriot Grave Marking. (Picture not available)

Ladies, we appreciate the Daughters of the American Revolution supporting our activities and for what you have done and are doing with the Sons of the American Revolution.
