Center for Advancing America's Heritage

Rev. Forrest Chilton talks with students from Smyrna Elementary School at a recent Center for Advancing America's Heritage session. Joe Parish, Philip Yenowine, RaeAnn Sauer and Charlie Scott were also on the program.

Wreaths Across America, Zachary Taylor Cemetery

At the Wreaths Across America ceremony Jasmyn Johnston, a member of the Jack Jouett C.A.R. and daughter of Gov. Isaac Shelby member Mark Johnston, played her violin. Sherri Stovall, who planned the event said: Mark Johnston's daughter was just darling, and I am so happy she offered to play. She did America the Beautiful, and it was well received. Next time, she will play more.

GIS members attending the event were: Joe Parish, Forrest Chilton, Chuck Scott, Scott Giltner, Bob Bynum and Mark Johnston.

Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter Awards Dinner

No wonder the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter is #1 in Service to Veterans!

After three years of service, Chuck Scott and John Clay Barnett received the Bronze Color Guard medal. In the picture to the left, Chuck receives his medal from Charlie Scott. J.C. will receive his medal at a future chapter meeting.

President General J. David Sympson and NSSAR Executive Director Joe Harris awards a National Meritorious Service medal to Charlie Scott for his work in documenting the renovation of the new SAR library.
