Kentucky Derby Parade

Compatriots from several states (Kentucky, Ohio, Texas, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Indiana and Missouri) pose at HQ before heading for the parade route.

Parade fifer, Charlie Scott and "Lucky" the clown.

Tom Higgins, Jon Huffman, Scott Giltner, ?????, Kirk Bacon, Dennis Scott, Chuck Scott and Rick Smurdon march in the parade.

President General Sympton had a rough day riding the route in a 1959 Cadillac convertible.

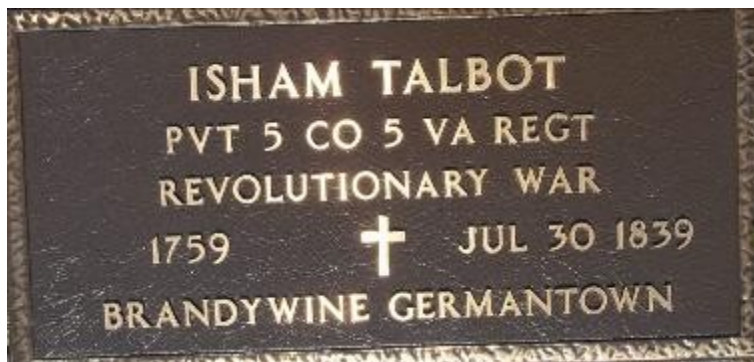

Color Guard Commander Michael Tomme leads the SAR marchers during the parade.

Patriot Grave Marking Captain James Patten & Pvt. Isham Talbot

(1) Mark Anthony and Dennis Scott leads the Color Guard as they advance to post colors.
(2) Noble Roberts and Gordon Snyder, descendant of Captain James Patten, salute the American Flag.

Two Patriots of the Revolutionary War, Captain James Patten and Private Isham Talbot, were honored with a Patriot Grave marking service at a cemetery located on Jefferson Street between 15th & 17th Streets on the west side of Louisville.

Captain Patten was active in the founding of Louisville and was an officer with George Rogers Clark. Private Talbot was in the Battles of Brandywine and Germantown.

“The parting glass”

Registrar General
