West Virginia

Rev. Forrest Bond Chilton, current President of the KYSSAR and the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter, recently won an election that will make him V.P. General of the Central District, NSSAR. He will be installed at the National Congress in 2012.

Hite Elementary School Pioneer Day

John Clay Barnett and Joe Parish talk with the students about Revolutionary War-Period items and weapons that we had on display. We also explained our collection of flags.

GIS members travel to Kings Mountain

Kings Mountain Monument

Casey County Heritage Day

This was a nice event where we had an opportunity to show several hundred students our flags and talk with them about American history--mainly the Revolutionary War. Forrest Chilton poses by our new banner with ladies dressed in period attire. In the center picture, Bob Bynum and Tom Higgins tells one of the groups about the Grand Union Flag. The picture on the right shows Tom Higgins and a newly found cousin. Tom had ancestors who lived in Casey County and his new cousin just happened to descend from one of Tom's ancestors.

Joe Parish talks with the students about his gun and how bullets were made.

Rev. Chilton displayed a few guns and swords as well as our chapter drum.

One group of students sang a song for us called: "The Minuteman"

Patriot Thomas Wright Grave Marking Service, Winchester, KY

Gravestone of Patriot Thomas Wright

Charlie and Chuck Scott fold the flag. They were assisted by Greg Hodge of the Lafayette Chapter.

"On behalf of a grateful nation, for service rendered by your ancestor, I proudly present you this flag."

Patriot George Plummer Grave Marking, Flemingsburg, KY

Dennis Scott, Joe Parish and Rev. Forrest Chilton conduct the flag folding ceremony and John Clay Barnett stands guard.

Harold Rarden is honored for his efforts in placing tombstones at the grave sites of numerous Revolutionary and Civil war soldiers.

President Haley Rigg brings greetings from the KSCAR Society. She later received a check from the KYSSAR to help with her state projects.

Joe Parish and Dennis Scott present wreaths during the ceremony.
