Martin's Station

Chapter President Scott Giltner and his children Andrew and Elizabeth.

SAR members at Martin's Station

Patriot Grave Marking--William Overall

John Marshall DAR member Laura Jones honored her Patriot ancestor William Overall with a Patriot Grave Marking service. Chuck and Charlie Scott sang “The Parting Glass” as a musical tribute and the following compatriots fired a black-powder gun salute: (L-R) Vic Bitter, Tommy Jones, Bill Manby, Jon Huffman and Dennis Scott.

Memorial Day Services

Flags Across America

“People uplifting real people”

Charlie complimented this group for taking part in this patriotic event.

Scottish Highland Games
