Sons of Liberty 1775 Statue Ceremony

Some of the Color Guard at the Sons of Liberty 1775 ceremony

The 8 1/2 foot statue standing on a 8 foot tall Kentucky limestone base now stands guard in front of our National Headquarters.

Benjamin Perry Patriot Grave Marking

Perry stone and crowd at Perry grave marking service.

Rev. Forrest Chilton discusses ceremony with descendant John Perry.

Chapter members Marshall Wilkins, Tommy Jones, Dennis Scott and Larry Selby pose with a descendant of Patriot Benjamin Perry.

Flag Retirement Service

Tom Higgins, Ed Myles and Noble Roberts

Tom Higgins holds the Flag while Ed Myles describes the make-up of the Flag.

Dennis Scott and Richard Spencer select a Flag that is tattered and torn for retirement.

Too bad, we could have used that 48 star Flag if it had been in better shape.

Rededication—Benjamin Logan Cemetery

Members of the Benjamin Logan Company

Hear ye!

Cost: $10 per member (Guests are free)

Plus: Bring your favorite dish or dessert

Chapter will furnish the meat.

Plus: Bring an item for the Silent Auction

This is a fund-raising project of our chapter.

We will be looking for new or gently used items you want to donate that you think someone would be willing to buy. Colonial items would be of special interest. Extra colonial clothing you no longer wear: Knives, powder horns, framed prints are just few of the things that might be donated.
