Events in May

May 1st Caleb Wallace Patriot Grave Marking Versailles, KY Cemetery Service at 11:00 AM

Join family, friends, and compatriots as we honor an early Kentucky Circuit Judge. Appointed in 1785, he served until 1813 and was very active in early Kentucky history.

“Postponed” 108th Birthday Party for Robley Rex Veteran of World War I

When: Postponed

(Robley is in the hospital) New date T/B/D

Where: Christopher East Nursing Home
4200 Browns Lane
Louisville, KY

Robley will receive a special award from our chapter and we will present special certificates to other Veterans residing at the nursing home.

Martins Station Trip May 8th & 9th

Compatriots from the GIS Chapter will leave on Friday, May 8 where we will spend the evening in South-eastern Kentucky before traveling to Ewing, VA to post Colors and present wreaths at the ceremony. We will return late Saturday afternoon. This is a nice trip—plan on joining in the fun.

Vincennes Rendezvous May 23rd 11:30 AM (EST)

George Rogers Clark Memorial Park

The Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter will be doing a Patriot grave marking service for Col. Joseph Bowman, a Commander who served under Col. George Rogers Clark. This service will be on Saturday morning. Some of our Compatriots will be traveling to Vincennes on Friday—others will drive up early Saturday morning.

There will be activities all weekend—Don't miss this!

Challenge Award

KYSSAR President, "Tom" Higgins presents a challenge coin and certificate to G.I.S. President Rev. Forrest B. Chilton for meeting the challenge in moving the "Minuteman" to Headquarters.
