General Basil W. Duke

Charlie Scott

General Basil W. Duke was a brother-in-law of John Hunt Morgan. He was second in command of the famous Confederate unit known as “Morgan’s Raiders”. He assumed command when Col. John Hunt Morgan was killed. Charlie’s Great, Great Grandfather, William H. Sheets, rode with Morgan’s Raiders. What else does General Duke and Charlie have in common?

Answer:

Both served the KYSSAR as Historian. General Duke in 1911 and Charlie in 2009.

Lions Camp Crescendo & Camp McKee Boy Scout

Members of the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter made presentations at two youth camps during July.

At the Lion’s Club Camp Crescendo, Lebanon Junction, KY, our members spoke to several dozen foster children.

At the Camp McKee Boy Scout Camp, the GIS members did a flag folding ceremony, gun salute, and a show & tell for about 50 Webelos. (age group between the Cub & Boy Scouts)
