Dennis Scott, Philip Yenowine and RaeAnn Sauer show an elementary class what is carried in a haversack. Here Dennis shows a fire-starting kit.

Service to Veterans: Chapter delivers a truck-load of books and other personal items to one of the eight V.A. hospitals we cover.

Kathy Cummings, President of the Painted Stone Settlers, presents Forrest a certificate making GIS members "Honorary" members of her organization. Dual member, Vic Bitter, looks on.

Veterans Day Activities

Group photo of members who attended the Massing of the Colors ceremony for Veterans Day. (L-R) Charlie Scott, Scott Giltner, Dennis Scott, John Test, Forrest Chilton, Chuck Scott, Bob Bynum and J.C. Barnett.

Dr. Noble Roberts has the attention of those who gathered at a Shelbyville cemetery for a Veterans Day program.

Members of our Color Guard presented Colors and Standards and did a flag-folding ceremony at the Clark Middle School in Winchester, KY. Several Veterans attended as guests of the students. Dr. Noble Roberts was the featured speaker.

Veterans Day Flags: To pay tribute to those who have served our country and defended our freedom, the following people set about 1700 flags in the Foxboro community of Louisville. Chuck Scott, Robert Brent, J.C. Barnett, Dennis Scott, Charlie Scott, Ed Myles, Forrest Chilton, Scott Giltner and his children: Elizabeth, Lara Rose, and Andrew.

We are out of flags—let's go get some pizza!

Chuck Scott goes over plans before we start.

Naturalization Ceremony

I'd ring that big bell if I could reach it!

New citizens pose proudly with members of our Color Guard.

Taking an oath to become a Naturalized citizen.

Your fife is smaller but sounds better than mine!

SAR Library—Now Open

The SAR library has moved into the new location at 809 West Main Street in Louisville, KY. The merchandise area is in the basement of the building and the genealogy area is on the second floor..

This new facility is really nice and something we can be proud of. When you get a chance, drop in and take a look.
