G.I.S. SAR and the American Heritage Girls

Vic Bitter made a presentation about George Rogers Clark.

American Heritage Girls took turns learning how to fold the flag. Scott Giltner's daughter, Elizabeth concentrates as she makes the final fold.

Tennessee Governor's Inauguration parade, Nashville, Tennessee

Chase and Megan Scott marched in the Tennessee Governor's Inauguration parade with their two Grandpa's--Charlie Scott and Bill Dykstra. Leading the Tennessee SAR Color Guard is the Fort Watauga Fife and Drum Corps.

Rick Hollis, President of the TNSSAR, waved to the crowd during the parade.

Gordon Jackson, Commander of the TNSSAR Color Guard, heads the impressive Tennessee group.

Group picture prior to the parade.

G.I.S. Members go to the Battle of the Cowpens, Gafney, S.C.

Rev. Forrest Chilton, Tom Geimeier (Simon Kenton Chapter), Chuck Scott and John Clay Barnett pose at Cowpens Monument.

John Clay Barnett

John Clay Barnett stands by the Cowpens Monument and Rev. Forrest Chilton and Chuck Scott pose at the snow-covered battlefield by a propane heater--a little too close!

Two of Scotland's finest.

What's going on here?

Don't venture into a Tory camp and don't back into an open flame heater.

Poor baby, this will make you feel better!

Jack Jouett C.A.R. Chapter Visits Headquarters

Three members of the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter, John Clay Barnett, Charlie Scott and Scott Giltner, attended a meeting of the Jack Jouett C.A.R. Chapter at NSSAR headquarters.

Colleen Wilson, Director of the Center for Advancing America's Heritage, gave an educational presentation on life of a soldier during the Revolution and told about some of the artifacts in the SAR Museum collection.

KYSSAR Color Guard

A Color Guard unit is being formed to represent our State Society at National events and to take part in activities throughout the state at chapter sponsored events. If you are interested in being part of this new unit let me know: cscott@insightbb.com.
