Other Activities

Vic Bitter made his third school presentation of the year on March 2nd.

Students at the Highland Middle School, Georgetown, Indiana heard Vic talk about General George Washington and his Continental Army.

Keep up the good work Vic!

Dennis Scott and Philip Yenowine talk about the Revolutionary soldier at the Center for Advancing America's Heritage.

Old Livingston Cemetery near Fredonia, KY

Scott Giltner and his Father repair a stone wall at the Old Livingston Cemetery near Fredonia, KY that had collapsed long ago. This is the cemetery where Revolutionary War Patriots John Elder and James Hawthorn are buried. We marked their graves in 2010. The highlight of the day was when Lara Rose and Elizabeth (Scott's daughters and C.A.R. members) found the foot stone for their GGGGreat Aunt Jane Johnson. Jane's husband, James Johnson, served in the War of 1812.

What a great family outing!

Fern Creek Elementary School

DAR and Colonial Dames member Sallie Cheatham Smith talks to the students about the Constitution of the United States and John Clay Barnett displays his Revolutionary War type rifle. Other GIS members told the students about our flags and uniforms.

GIS members pose with the Principal of Fern Creek Elementary School. Left to right: John Test, Bob Bynum, School Principal, Chuck Scott, Rev. Forrest Chilton, Joe Parish, John Clay Barnett and Charlie Scott.

A follow up meeting has been scheduled where we will tell the school administrators about "The Center for Advancing America's Heritage." We will also leave a few Rev. War History CD's for their teachers.

D.A.R. State Meeting

SAR Compatriots who posted Colors and Standards at the KSDAR state meeting include: Kneeling: Tom Higgins, Charlie Scott and Scott Giltner. Standing: Dennis Scott, Lafayette Chapter's Del White, Bob Bynum, Chuck Scott and Ed Myles. KYSSAR President Forrest Chilton took part but was not present for the picture.

JROTC Medals

Our chapter will be presenting ten JROTC medals this year. We will discuss the schedule at our meeting. Please consider taking part in this as we share the work load. You will enjoy this activity.
