SAR/VFW Flag Retirement

Dennis Scott and Charlie Scott retire the first flag at the joint SAR/VFW Flag Retirement service.

Members of both the Gov. Isaac Shelby SAR Chapter and the VFW Post out of Shelbyville retired about 100 tattered and torn flags in the ceremony at Clear Creek Park, Shelbyville.

1812 Patriot Grave Ceremony (Mt. Sterling, KY)

Samuel Luttrell Williams 1781-1872

A tailor by trade, a patriot called to arms, a farmer, and a legislator. Samuel L. Williams was born in Northumberland County, VA, the son of Revolutionary War soldier Rawleigh Williams and Rebecca Luttrell. The family settled in what is now Montgomery County in 1792. He was commissioned as the Captain of the 5th Regiment on August 7, 1812 and led a company of 83 men, including his younger brother Thaddeus, from this county to the Battle of River Raisin in Michigan. Following his capture and parole, he returned to Montgomery County where he and his wife Fanny Cluke raised their large family of twelve children. He took an active part in community and state affairs. He represented Montgomery County in the State House of Representatives in 1814 and 1818, and was sent to the Kentucky Senate from 1820-24, 1828-32, and 1840-1844. He attained the rank of General while serving in the State Militia. Williams died on his farm at the age of 91.

GIS Color Guard

Chuck Scott & Beirne Miles (Descendant)

Many thanks to the Gov. Isaac Shelby color guard for joining the General Zachary Taylor United States Daughters of 1812 in paying tribute to a veteran of the Battle of River Raisin. The presentation of the flags and playing Taps truly made the ceremony quite patriotic. I know that General Sam would have been proud to be honored by your participation. It was a lovely tribute. Thank you for traveling so far to honor my War of 1812 veteran ancestor, Samuel Luttrell Williams. Sincerely, Leslie Miller

Spreading the word about the SAR

Tom Higgins and Charlie Scott each made presentations recently. Tom spoke to the Louisville Genealogical Society and Charlie made a PowerPoint presentation at the Scottish Society of Louisville. Above, DAR members pose with the presenters.

SAR/DAR Flag Retirement Ceremony

Chuck Scott reads and Ed Myles holds "Old Glory." Dennis Scott retires a flag that had become tattered and torn. Morgan Janes holds the DAR flag while standing with her Grandmother, KSDAR Regent Jessieanne Wells.
