Tory, Vic Bitter, in his Butler's Rangers uniform talks to the students about why he and some of his neighbors decided to support King George. Guards, Chuck Scott, Joe Parish and unidentified Minuteman keep a close eye on Bitter.

Bob Bynum shows one type of weapon carried by the militia. Bob also told the students about items carried in a haversack.

Joe Parish gives a demonstration on how his rifle works and how it differs from a musket.

Dennis Scott shows his KY long rifle while Bob Bynum and Joe Parish wait their turn

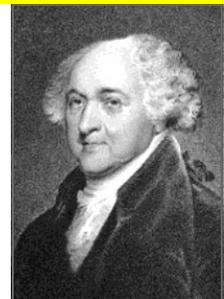

Bob Bynum, Chuck Scott and Joe Parish do a flag folding demonstration.

Why we work with the youth of America

It should be your care, therefore, and mine, to elevate the minds of our children and exalt their courage. John Adams

"Children should be educated and instructed in the principles of freedom." John Adams

John Adams

Thomas Jefferson

History by apprising [citizens] of the past will enable them to judge of the future; it will avail them of the experience of other times and other nations; it will qualify them as judges of the actions and designs of men; it will enable them to know ambition under every disguise it may assume; and knowing it, to defeat its views.

Thomas Jefferson, Notes on the State of Virginia, Query 14, 1781

Center for Advancing America's Heritage--Williamsburg, KY

Several months ago there was an article about the NSSAR receiving a grant to take the CAAH program on the road to help tell students in Eastern Kentucky about early American history. On March 28th, members of the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter (Joe Parish, Bob Bynum, Tom Higgins and Charlie Scott) helped NSSAR staff members (Colleen Wilson, RaeAnn Sauer and Don Shaw) put on the program for seven Eastern Kentucky classes.

Check schedule on page 4 for future CAAH events

Rev. Forrest Bond Chilton

Members of the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter presented a painting of Forrest holding the flag of his ancestors (The Culpeper Minuteman Flag) with a Minuteman standing in a Patriot cemetery.

The President of our chapter, Rev. Forrest Bond Chilton, ended his term of office as President of the Kentucky Society at the March 10th KYSSAR State meeting, Erlanger, KY.

In July, Rev. Chilton will be sworn in as the Vice President General of the Central District NSSAR.
