Tri Events

Three events in one day is a little much, even for members of our chapter. Some of our members did all three, some did two and others did one--but we got the job done.

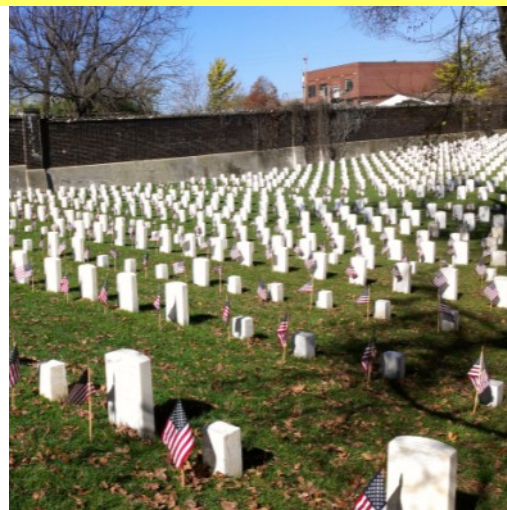

The events:

Veterans Day Parade
Veterans Salute at Nursing home
Jeffersontown Veterans Day Program

Members involved included: Rev. Forrest Chilton, Bob Brent, Joe Parish, Joe Noffsinger, Chuck Scott, Tom Jones, Bob Bynum, Larry Selby, Scott Giltner and Charlie Scott.

Joining us at the parade and J-Town were members of DAR Chapters

Flags for Veterans Day

Al Coleman (Lafayette Chapter) and Scott Giltner, Charlie Scott, Chuck Scott and Forrest Chilton from the Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter presented Colors at Cave Hill Cemetery prior to flags being put on the military grave sites. Noble Roberts and Ed Myles also took part in the event but were unavailable for the picture.

Bob Brent stands besides some flags placed in a Louisville neighborhood for Veterans Day.

Joe Parish placed 55 flags on the military graves at Resthaven Cemetery for Veterans Day.

We will work for food!

After placing about 1600 flags in Chuck's neighborhood, he treated us with some home-made chili. Volunteers included: Bob Brent, Forrest Chilton, Mexican helper, Chuck Scott, Scott Giltner and taking photo--Charlie Scott.

American Heritage Girls Lara Rose and Elizabeth Giltner and brother Andrew joins dad (Scott) Al Coleman, Charlie Scott and Chuck Scott at the "Flags for Vets" ceremony.

Merry Christmas

Two Gov. Isaac Shelby Chapter members, Preston T. Higgins, II and Lloyd Fowler were recently approved and inducted into the Society of Cincinnati.

Charlie Scott, Tom Higgins, Dennis Scott and Rev. Forrest Chilton did a Veterans Day program at Warren East Middle School in Bowling Green. Here Charlie poses with a teacher who is an Air Force Veteran. The student body gave her a standing ovation as she tried on a replica of General George Washington's jacket.

Center for Advancing America's Heritage

In the picture to the left Chuck Scott tries to straighten the turkey feather on the fox hat. In the center, three students from Caldwell Co. try out the weapons and George Washington's coat. And on the right, Joe Parish and John Clay Barnett explain how the musket and rifle work--how to load it and how it works and the difference between the two.

School Presentation

John Clay Barnett visited St. Mary of the Knobs school in Southern Indiana where he made several presentations. The top pictures show students sitting in the gym area. John used the students to hold the flags as he talked about them.

On some of the grades, J.C. moved to the classroom where he tailored his talk depending on the grade of the students. On the bottom left, one of the students holds up John's gun. On the bottom right, the students hold a "Betsy Ross" flag while wearing colonial hats.

Volunteer Luncheon

GIS members invited to the volunteers luncheon: (L-R) Larry Selby, Noble Roberts, Tom Higgins, Bob Bynum, Joe Parish, Charlie Scott and John Clay Barnett.
