Middletown Parade

Taking part in the Middletown parade were: (L-R) Chuck Scott, Elizabeth, Scott, Andrew and Lara Rose Giltner and Rev. Forrest Chilton. Thanks to Ram Engineering and Construction Co. for providing the truck.

Painted Stone Settler's School Day & Long Run Massacre

Several hundred school children attended Painted Stone Settler's school day to witness what it was like in early Kentucky. Several stations were set up to show the children what settlers had to do to survive in colonial days. NSSAR Educational Director Colleen Wilson and NSSAR Archivist RaeAnn Sauer worked the GIS Chapter's station by showing the students how to write with a quill pen and ink. Forrest Chilton, Tom Higgins, Charlie Scott, Chuck Scott, Vic Bitter and Scott Giltner were there and passed out information about the chapter's youth contests and Keyhole to History program.

Colleen Wilson and Rae Ann Sauer instruct students on how to write with a quill pen and ink.

Vic Bitter and Margrit Copeland talk about items at their station.

Jon Hagee plays a song on his lute for those who visited his station.

The students gather to watch a cannon demonstration.

Invitation

The Corn Island DAR Chapter has invited all SAR members to attend a special Veterans event on at the Owl Creek Country Club, 12400 Osage Road, Louisville, KY--Friday, October 11, time 6:30pm to 8:30pm. The featured speaker will be Wounded Warrior Mike Jeffrey with his service dog "Seal Team".

Patriot Grave Marking Captain James Hollis and Pvt. Isaac Hollis

Tom Higgins and Charlie Scott ventured to Clarksville, Tennessee to support Compatriots Rick Hollis and Bobby Lee Parker in a dedication service for their Patriot ancestors James and Isaac Hollis. They performed a flag-folding ceremony and presented both Rick and Bobby Lee a flag in honor of their Patriot ancestors.

Hollis Family descendants pose by memorial stones placed in tribute to their Patriot ancestors--James and Isaac Hollis.

Distinguished Service

Charlie congratulates Forrest on receiving a Distinguished Service award from the chapter. Forrest had tried to give the award to one of the members who refused the award and instead presented it to Forrest.

Farnsley-Moreman House School Day at the river

Colleen Wilson and Rae Ann Sauer got plenty of action teaching students how to write with a quill pen. Charlie Scott talked about our flags and Forrest Chilton showed some Revolutionary War era items at his table.

Rod Smothers lectures at his station.

During the flag lecture, the young lady on the left answered every question Charlie asked about our flags. She even knew that the Sons of Liberty dressed as Mohawk Indians at the Boston Tea Party.

American Heritage Girls

We learned how to fold a flag and we did a good job!

Corporal Benjamin Garr War of 1812 Patriot Grave Marking Service

Kneeling: Charlie Scott, Tom Higgins and James Mitchell (TXSSAR)
Standing: Scott Giltner, Forrest Chilton, Ben Wallace, Junior Murdock and Joe Noffsinger

TXSSAR Compatriot James Mitchell talks about his 1812 ancestor.

TNSSAR Compatriot Rick Hollis brings greetings from the National Society of the War of 1812.

Rick serves the 1812 Society as V.P. General and does the 1812 newsletter.

Rosette & Medal

Joe Noffsinger receives his SAR Rosette from Rev. Forrest Chilton.

Forrest Chilton and Charlie Scott picked up over 1500 books collected by Westmoreland Award winner Philip Yenowine. For the picture, and out of respect for Philip--a U.K. fan, Charlie wore his U.L. hat backwards.
