Honor Flight

The reason we go to the Honor Flight receptions is to Honor World War II heroes like those pictured above.

Eight of our members (Chuck Scott, Forrest Chilton, Joe Parish, Tommy Jones, Dennis Scott, Marshall Wilkins, Scott Giltner and Charlie Scott) took part in the reception as we welcomed the WWII Veterans home from their trip to Washington DC where they visited the WWII Monument.

Part of our group at the Honor Flight: (L-R) Forrest Chilton, Marshall Wilkins' Daughter and Granddaughter (Jennifer and Kate Brown), Past KSDAR Regent Jessieanne Wells, Marshall Wilkins, Joe Parish and Scott Giltner.

Cleanup work at Fredonia Cemetery

Scott Giltner and some local men pause for a picture while using weed eaters at Fredonia Cemetery where some of Scott's ancestors are buried.

Giltner's Travels

Scott Giltner and his children (Andrew, Laura Rose and Elizabeth) stopped by the Bethel Presbyterian Cemetery in Clover, SC and put flags at the grave sites of their ancestors.

Celebration of Battle of Kings Mountain

Scott Giltner and his family visited the site of the Battle of Kings Mountain and as expected found the National Park closed due to the government shutdown. Expressions on the faces of Elizabeth, Lara Rose and Andrew tell that no one in the group is happy about the situation. Later, however, Scott and his children all got to present wreaths at the Kings Mountain ceremony held at a different location. The picture on the bottom right shows the family at a memorial for one of the Heroes of the Kings Mountain Battle--Colonel James Williams.
